

7-DAY ITINERARY

FLORIDA KEYS

YACHTLIFE®

DAY 1 (3-HOUR CRUISE)

KEY LARGO

Depart Miami to Key Largo, AKA the Diving Capital of the World, and an ideal location for water sports as one can kayak through the mangroves or jet ski along the coast. Also, no trip to Key Largo is complete without a visit to Pennekamp Park, the most visited snorkel site in the Keys famous for its underwater Jesus Christ statue and surrounding reefs.

DAY 2 (3-HOUR CRUISE)

MARATHON KEY

Wake up to breakfast onboard, as you cruise to the heart of the Florida Keys, Marathon Key. Drop anchor to explore the turquoise waters by jet skis or by snorkel and swim with the dolphins before stepping ashore to visit Marathon City Marina, considered the prize-gem for those exploring the keys by yacht.

DAY 3 (2-HOUR CRUISE)

THE LOWER KEYS

Welcome to the Lower Florida Keys, an archipelago of small islands lying in crystal blue waters within the Gulf of Mexico. Anchor in Big Pine Key and take the rest of the day to swim and snorkel within the region's unique sites and natural attractions: coral reefs, sunken ships and 150+ species of fish.

DAY 4 (3-HOUR CRUISE)

KEY WEST

Take an early morning cruise to the southernmost point of the USA, Key West. Spend the morning kayaking to the mangrove islands or visit the westernmost part of the Florida Keys: Dry Tortugas National Park. Snorkel through the archipelago's undisturbed colorful coral reefs and explore 19-th century Fort Jefferson. In the afternoon, tender ashore to explore the Ernest Hemingway house

DAY 5 (2-HOUR CRUISE)

DUCK KEY

As you begin your cruise back to Miami, drop anchor in one of the Lower Keys: Duck Key. Spend the day exploring the warm gulf waters or tender ashore to the luxury Hawks Cay resort before enjoying evening drinks and a chef prepared meal aboard your yacht.

ISLAMORADA

Drop anchor in Islamorada, featured in the Netflix series Bloodlines, known for hosting the largest fishing fleet per square mile in the world. Visit the famous Cheeca Lodge & Resort where George H.W. Bush used to run a fishing tournament, which also features the longest pier in all of the Florida Keys. Make sure your chef prepares the catch of the day for a rewarding dinner on your yacht.

DAY 7 (2-HOUR CRUISE)

BISCAYNE BAY

For a last leisurely day on the water, cruise by Stiltsville and drop anchor off Key Biscayne. Drop the water toys into the water and enjoy a fun morning alongside other yachts in Biscayne Bay. Before you finish your charter, head up the Miami River and dock at Seaspice or Kiki on the River, two of Miami's hotspots for the in-crowd, for a final lunch or dinner in true Miami style.
